Airfare and air taxes can be paid by air credit. Air credit is only available when booking air through Azamara. Any air booked independently will not receive additional credit. Azamara air credit applies only to flights booked to the embarkation city (Miami) within 14 days of the cruise start date and booked from the debarkation city (Athens) within 14 days of cruise completion. Air credit is not applicable to any penalties or fees. Air credit must be applied to booking no later than the final payment date. Penalties will apply once airfare is ticketed for changes or cancellations. When published airfare is selected, the full airfare cost will be in penalty at the time of booking. Flexible air ticketed prior to final payment due date incurs a $400/pp fee for cancellation. After the final payment due date, flexible air bookings follow the cruise penalty schedule.
